

When Should You NOT Use An Apostrophe?

When Should You NOT Use An Apostrophe?

4a. Rewrite these sentences and correct all the apostrophe mistakes.

On Friday morning, were going to get our's bike's and ride to our friends houses. My brothers' a bit worried about us riding in lot's of traffic.

A

4b. Rewrite these sentences and correct all the apostrophe mistakes.

On Saturday's we go swimming, Iv'e got to wear armband's, and afterwards my friends' mum joins us and we have some drink's.

A

5a. Zain is completing the following sentence.

I can't wait to open all my _____ after my party.

Zain says,

I need to write present's to finish the sentence.

Is Zain right? Explain your answer.

R

5b. Chloe is completing the following sentence.

The children are waiting for their _____ because they are late.

Chloe says,

I need to write parent's to finish the sentence.

Is Chloe right? Explain your answer.

R

6a. Have the apostrophes been used correctly in the sentence below?

Lewis's cat's all have very bright collar's so he can see them when it's dark.

Explain your answer.

R

6b. Have the apostrophes been used correctly in the sentence below?

Bess' book's are all over her bed, not mine's, as sh'es decided to read all of them.

Explain your answer.

R

Application and Reasoning When Should You NOT Use An Apostrophe?

Developing

1a. Children should correct the following mistakes: I'm, we're, his, games.

2a. No, it should be games because it is not showing possession or omission.

3a. No, it should be sister's, mustn't and hers.

Expected

4a. Children should correct the following mistakes: we're, our, bikes, friends', brother's, lots.

5a. No, it should be presents because it is not showing possession or omission.

6a. Partly. Lewis's is correct but cats and collars do not need an apostrophe.

Greater Depth

7a. Children should correct the following mistakes: I'd, films, friends won't.

8a. No, it should be gifts because it is not showing possession or omission.

9a. No, it should be Sam and Ellie's, puppies, yours and won't.

Application and Reasoning When Should You NOT Use An Apostrophe?

Developing

1b. Children should correct the following mistakes: don't, hurts, exercises.

2b. No, it should be Kittens because it is not showing possession or omission.

3b. No, it should be Maria's and I'm.

Expected

4b. Children should correct the following mistakes: Saturdays, I've, armbands, friend's, drinks.

5b. No, it should be parents because it is not showing possession or omission.

6b. No, it should be Bess's, books, mine and she's.

Greater Depth

7b. Children should correct the following mistakes: Adil and Mariam's, parents, they'll, it's.

8b. No, it should be friends because it is not showing possession or omission.

9b. No it should be programmes, Priya and Rahul's, it's and theirs.