

Descriptive Fronted Adverbials

Descriptive Fronted Adverbials

5a. Underline the fronted adverbial that tells us how something happened. Unexpectedly, the show ended and we had to go home. Later on, the show ended and we had to go home.  VF	5b. Underline the fronted adverbial that tells us how something happened. Carefully, he painted the wood, yet he still got some on the walls. Immediately, he painted the wood, yet he still got some on the walls.  VF
6a. Replace the underlined fronted adverbial using an antonym. Steadily, Hafsa balanced on the beam and prepared to perform her routine.  VF	6b. Replace the underlined fronted adverbial using an antonym. Anxiously, Ben walked out on the stage and started his solo piano piece.  VF
7a. Insert the fronted adverbial that tells us how the verb takes place in the sentence below. _____, the girl sped off down the street, for she was late for class. Frantically Sometimes Nearby  VF	7b. Insert the fronted adverbial that tells us how the verb takes place in the sentence below. _____, the poppies fell from the ceiling and everyone bowed their heads. Far away Before long Silently  VF
8a. Choose the most appropriate clause to follow the fronted adverbial below. Without a sound, _____. A. the picture fell off the wall, breaking the frame. B. the children put their heads down and got on with their work.  VF	8b. Choose the most appropriate clause to follow the fronted adverbial below. Mysteriously, _____. A. the flowers from her friend looked lovely on the windowsill in a pretty vase. B. the money raised in the raffle had disappeared from inside the safe.  VF

Varied Fluency
Descriptive Fronted Adverbials

Developing

- 1a. Happily, the man accepted the money.
2a. Various answers, for example: quietly, softly
3a. Half asleep
4a. A

Expected

- 5a. Unexpectedly, the show ended and we had to go home.
6a. Various answers, for example: unsteadily, shaking
7a. Frantically
8a. B

Greater Depth

- 9a. Completely exhausted, he drove home after a long week away as he was desperate to see his loving family.
10a. Various answers, for example: nervously, anxiously
11a. Without warning
12a. B

Varied Fluency
Descriptive Fronted Adverbials

Developing

- 1b. Nervously, the kitten stepped outside.
2b. Various answers, for example: quickly, rapidly
3b. Sadly
4b. A

Expected

- 5a. Carefully, he painted the wood, yet he still got some on the walls.
6a. Various answers, for example: confidently, calmly
7a. Silently
8a. B

Greater Depth

- 9b. Reassuringly, Claire stroked her dog's thick fur until the fireworks could no longer be heard.
10b. Various answers, for example: kindly, playfully
11b. Selfishly
12b. A